The real story here, to distill it to one line, is that of a tug of war between big-state social justice liberals progressing toward a modern future and conservatives pushing to returning to a past age when things were “great” (that age is 1900 for modern conservatives, roughly 1775 for the Confederate era, and the 1820’s for the old ...

Democrats and Republicans Switched Platforms - Fact / Myth

You are judging the painting against other paintings, rather than judging the painting as an expression of the man. When looking for a civilizational leader, I would prefer a draftsman who understood the value of the architectural lines of the civilization and the worth of the people and saw the Logos behind them, rather than an artist with “imagination” (i.e. seeing what is not there) and ...
