The Housing Lark: Selvon, Sam, Ahmad, Dohra, Phillips ...

Although published 10 years after The Lonely Londoners, The Housing Lark seems to continue where Sam Selvon's better-known masterpiece stopped. Originally published in 1964, there are similarities in theme, setting, and style, but Selvon shows far greater control, even restraint in The Housing Lark. This is undoubtedly the work of a more mature, more confident Selvon.
